Did you know that Downtown Idaho Springs is a nationally registered historic district? Do you know that historic designation can come with a wide variety of benefits to property owners who own property within the district?

Do you want to know more about how you could designate your own property or home? Do you have questions about the pros and cons of designating a property? Do you have any preservation or renovation questions about your property?

If so, please attend the August 18, 2026, Historic Preservation Review Commission (HPRC), where we will be discussing historic preservation and answering any questions you may have about anything preservation related!

Reach out to Dylan Graves at DGraves@idahospringsco.com with any questions!
